

TERMINAL PLANS WERE KEPT A DEEP SECRET

Cecil Goddard Said That Man was Working on Them Under Assumed Name

WITNESS IS TIRED OUT
Shows That the Long Cross-Examination Has Begun to Tell on Him Physically

At the close of this morning's session, the Commission adjourned until June 28th.

The cross-examination of Mr. Goddard was continued this morning before the Royal Commission. The witness began to show visible effects of his long inquisition and even appeared to Mr. Bennett in a low tone, which counsel didn't appear to hear, in words such as: "I am pretty nearly played out," Mr. Bennett.

"Wasn't there an engineer working in the office of the Waterways under an assumed name?" was Mr. Bennett's first question.

"Yes," answered the witness, after some deliberation.

"What was his name?"

"His right name was Rohler, and he came from Kansas City or St. Louis."

"What name did he assume?"

"Schmitz."

"Why did he come here?"

"Under Dr. Waddell's instructions."

"Why was he working under an assumed name?"

"It was confidential work he was doing."

"What was the nature of it?"

"He was working on the terminals."

"When did he come?"

"The first of January and remained until April."

FIRE HAS SWEEPED OVER 30 MILES

Large and Valuable Timber Areas in Saskatchewan Have Been Destroyed by Forest Fire

LOSS OVER ONE MILLION
Buildings of Kinistino Milling Company Destroyed With a Loss of $50,000

Mistatin, Sask., May 28.—With the amount of timber destroyed in the bush and ties burned along the track, the losses by forest fires will be exceedingly heavy and may exceed a million dollars. Trains have been unable to go through the fire for the last eighteen hours and the telegraph line is burned down in many places, the track is also burned in places and the fire is spreading east under a north-wind.

There is no sign of rain.

"There seems to be nothing that will prevent it reaching Shaw Bros' timber limits, east of here."

The whole country from near Crooked River to Bannock, 30 miles in length, seems to be almost completely fire swept and it is known how far north and south the fire has spread, but it must be many miles.

There was nothing. Only Mr. Clarke had a habit of keeping everything so secret as if there was a mystery in it.

"Mr. Fraser was not the banker of the company or interested in any way yet he seemed to think you had given something away. Now, wasn't he interested in some one?"

"I think he was interested in Mr. Clarke."

"Now you went down to the bank and spent two hours there. I want to find out what happened. There was some leakage of information, wasn't there? Wasn't Mr. Cross' name mentioned?"

"Some one had said that he had endorsed the note of $50,000."

"Yes, but what else was there?"

Witness then said that the object was to clear up the misunderstanding which existed between McKinnon, himself and Fraser.

He was then asked if any discussion took place regarding any financial interests that Mr. Cross had—to which he answered "No."

The question was asked again and Mr. Goddard asked if he had to answer the question. On being told that he must, he said that Mr. Fraser was very vindictive at the charges that had been made against Mr. Cross and also that the rumor that was going around about the terminals and Mr. Cross' interest in them.

"And that was all that took place at the bank in those two hours?"

"Yes."

Mr. Clarke did not inform the witness that the $50,000 cheque was drawn for, and he never said anything about the charter costing two months.

Questioned as to why the location of the line was switched to a route that neither witness or Phillips had been over, he said that he supposed they had found a better line, and that he did not know of any other reason.

"Did Mr. Clarke suggest that you should take a trip for your health?"

FEW CAME FORWARD FOR NAVY OFFICES

No Applications for Engineering Branch and Few for the Executive Branches

Ottawa, May 28.—In spite of the attractive future which the engineering branch of the naval service opens up to young Canadians, not one application has been received for admission into that branch of the navy and very few applications have been received from boys to enter the executive branches.

CHEMICAL IN BOY'S POCKET EXPLODED

His Right Arm Was Badly Shattered—Two Other People Seriously Injured

HAPPENED ON THE STREET
The Boy Had Been Experimenting in Chemistry and Was Taking Some Material Home

Toronto, May 28.—A most unusual accident, the explosion of chemicals in a boy's pocket as he was walking on McCaul street last evening caused very serious injuries to Frank Barsotti, aged 14, as the result of which he has lost his right arm. Stewart Park, aged 11, and Miss Maud Barnett, aged 21, who were passing at the time were also seriously hurt.

Barsotti, who had been experimenting with chemicals had bought some chloride of potash the night before, which he had evidently mixed with some sulphur. The great force of the explosion was shown by the fact that Barsotti's right arm was so shattered that it had to be amputated. A hole was made in his thigh and another in his abdomen.

At the meeting of the Commissioners yesterday afternoon, Commissioner Bouillon suggested that the construction of the street railway extension be placed under the supervision of the city engineer. The board unanimously assented. This will mean that the city engineer will have authority over the staff in the railway office.

In regard to a complaint received about the Alberta Lumber Company's action in closing a lane, it was decided that the lane in question should be leased to the company at a nominal price.

Messrs. W. W. Prevey, of the Edmonton City Dairy, and Warner of the Milk Produce Association, requested a special consideration of pasteurized milk when the milk question came up for discussion.

The Dawson Coal Company, through its representative, H. J. Dawson, requested the board for the right to lease a part of Jasper avenue extension, pointing out that owing to the straightening of the street it would not be required by the city. The company wish to construct an aerial line for hoisting coal from the mines. Mr. Dawson was informed that when the negotiations with the Dominion government, in connection with the straightening of the street are completed, the company's application would be considered.

It was shown that a number of street railway employees are traveling without paying while off duty. Conductors will be instructed to collect fares in future in such cases.

Some changes have been found necessary in the plans of the new car. The 101st Band asked that the stand on College avenue be repaired and locked up, to prevent further injury.

The city engineer is considering the opening of a way to First street via Nelson avenue and Short street.

There are some swell new things in young men's soft hats for spring wear at Kelly & Moore's.

MRS. NEWTON HAS SECURED DIVORCE

New York Despatch Says Her Husband Was Aide-de-Camp to Governor General

INITIALS ARE DIFFERENT
Name of Aide-de-Camp Was D. O. Newton—The Despatch Says "Montague"

New York, May 28.—An interlocutory decree of divorce was granted in the Supreme Court to Mrs. Janet Newton from Montague Newton, who is described as an aide-de-camp to Earl Grey, Governor General of Canada. Notice of suit was sent to him, she asserted, at the Government House in Ottawa. The suit was brought on statutory grounds.

Mrs. Newton charges that her husband was arrested and sentenced to prison in London for deserting her. Cable messages from London on November, 1907, told of the sentencing of Montague Newton to twenty months' imprisonment for a "conspiracy to cheat and defraud." Sir Charles Lewis, a prominent attorney, caused Newton's arrest on charges of attempting to use his firm's name in an alleged blackmailing scheme.

Capt. D.O. Newton, aide-de-camp to Earl Grey, resigned his position on the staff at the end of last year. The initials are different from those given in the despatch and it is hardly likely that the two men are the same person.

A. M. PARKIN GOES TO WORKHOUSE

He Clung to His Story About R. B. Bennett, But in Vain

Minneapolis, Minn., May 28.—A. M. Parkin of Calgary, held at the central police station, and unable to furnish "distance," Parkin later claimed that Bennett allowed him to be kept there in order that he would be unable to give certain evidence before the Royal Commission that was investigating the action of the Alberta government in guaranteeing the bonds of the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway.

Judge C. L. Smith refused further continuance of the case yesterday, saying that it was apparent that Bennett was not going to appear, and sentenced Parkin to thirty days in the workhouse. Other charges are said to be pending against the man, who it is said is wanted by the St. Paul authorities on the charge of cashing worthless cheques.

SHACKLETON IN EDMONTON

SIR ERNEST TELLS OF THE ANTARCTIC

Story of Heroism Was Modestly and Humorously Told By British Explorer

SHACKLETON WILL COME BACK HERE

Hopes to Return to Edmonton Next Year and Investigate Country to North

WITH PARTY OF EXPERTS
His Party Will Be Composed of Eight Men and Include Geologists and Mineralogists

"I am more than ever convinced that Canada is bound to become a great country, and I want to have a share in the work of development. My only plan for the future is to make my home in Canada. I hope to return here next year with a perfectly equipped surveying party, and then go into the country north and east of here."

Briefly, that was what Sir Ernest Shackleton told a Capital reporter this morning. The noted explorer was in his private room over at Strathcona when the reporter called to see him. The newspaper man was at once invited in, and for half an hour Sir Ernest paced restlessly up and down the narrow confines of the car, very much like a caged animal, talking in brief, snappy sentences all the while.

Young in Appearance
The explorer's personal appearance is somewhat of a surprise to one who sees him at close range for the first time. He is far younger than one would imagine to be the case with a man who has already accomplished so much, and who has such a long life ahead of him.

He is of medium height, clean shaven, with a strong face, the kind of a face that shows that the man has been through hardship and has fought against great odds. But it also is the kind of a face that shows that the man is more apt to be a conqueror than suffer defeat.

His energy, vigor and enthusiasm are apparent at every move that he makes, and if Canada secures such a man it will be a good thing for Canada. He is today filled with enthusiasm for this country.

The reporter thought that he had gone to interview Sir Ernest, but he soon found out his mistake. It was soon Sir Ernest that was interviewing the reporter. He asked all manner of questions about the country, and every one of them showed the keen and intelligent interest that he is taking in Canada. Sir Ernest wanted to know about the kind of government that we had here, what the country to the north of here was like, and the possibilities that there were for development.

Party of Experts
"What I want to do," said Sir Ernest, "is to come out here next spring, or late in the winter, with a party of about eight men, composed of expert geologists and mineralogists. Then we will take the winter trails to as far north as we wish to go and then when the spring comes, we will study the waterways."

In this way Sir Ernest hopes to gain a great deal of accurate information about a country that abounds in mineral wealth but about which very little is known yet.

Will Reach the Pole
In speaking about his trip to the south, Sir Ernest said that he would like to make another journey to that part of the world, but he thought that it would not be for some time yet. He expressed the greatest enthusiasm for the expedition of Captain Scott, that starts on the first of next month. He expects that Scott will reach the south pole on or about the twenty-second of December, 1911.

This afternoon Sir Ernest addressed the Capital Club, where he held a luncheon in his honor at the King Edward Hotel at one o'clock. Col. Edwards presided, and His Honor the Lieutenant Governor was present.

The explorer will leave for the coast this afternoon, where he will deliver the lecture at Vancouver. Then he returns to the East, and expects to sail for England about the middle of next month.

INSANE CRIME OF YOUNG BOY

Beat Little Children Into Insensibility—Some of His Victims Were Seriously Injured

JUMPED FROM WINDOW

Made Sensational Attempt to Escape Arrest, But Later Broke Down and Confessed

St. John, N. B., May 27.—The police yesterday made a sensational arrest of a boy fiend who has been torturing children in this vicinity for the past few weeks. He is A. McLaughlin, 16 years of age, and was arrested in his home after he had jumped from a high window in an attempt to escape. The boy was taken to the police station and positively identified by the children he had ill-treated. No case for a long time has caused such a sensation. McLaughlin, who is a novel fiend, approached little children on the streets and by promises of candy would induce them to accompany him to secluded places and then, stripping them of their clothes, would beat them almost into insensibility. Poor cases are already against him and there may be more.

In all cases his method was the same and the children beaten by him were very seriously injured. In at least one case, that of little Grace Ingraham, 7 years old, the result was very serious and it was thought that the little girl would die.

When first arrested the boy denied the charge, but when confronted by his victims he broke down and confessed. He could give no reason for his action.

BOLD PIRATES ON LAKE HURON

One of Them is Captured After a Search Which Lasted Six Years

STEAM YACHT STOLEN

Prisoner Admits Having Taken it But Claims His Companion Posed as Owner

Toronto, May 27.—A daring case of piracy on the waters of Lake Huron which has baffled the authorities for six years has just been solved in the arrest of Capt. A. W. Hopps by the provincial police and his confession has all the thrills of a novel.

On the night of September 24th, 1904, a 64-foot steam yacht "Ophir," owned by Mr. Pearce of Parry Sound, was boarded by two men from a steam tug pilot. Through an ugly storm and in the darkness they struck out into the lake in the craft they had seized and were no more heard of.

One of the men was recognized as Skipper Hopps. They hailed the Attorney-General's department to which it was reported at the time, but some months after it was learned that a yacht answering to the description of the missing "Ophir" had landed at Glen Arbor displaying a newly polished and painted exterior and sailing under the name of "Eric."

Nothing, however, was heard of Hopps until last week Provincial Officer Conway reported that Hopps had unexpectedly turned up in the Georgian Bay district and after looking up old records in the possession of the department, Superintendent Rogers directed his arrest, which was effected. Hopps admitted he took the yacht with another, but claimed that he believed his companion to be the owner. He will be placed on trial at Parry Sound.

200,000 Employees Affected

Fall River, Mass., May 28.—Nearly all of the cotton mills here will be shut down from Saturday, June 6th, to curtail the output. About 20,000 operatives and possibly more will be affected.

TOM LONGBOAT NEARLY DROWNED

After Looking at the Wine When it was Red, the late Marathoner Went Sailing with Sad Results

Toronto, May 28.—Tom Longboat yesterday, was drunk again.

He may not be keeping vividly before the public on the athletic field but there are other means of publicity which result in the reaching of nearly as many people.

It seems to have become fashionable lately for noted athletes to fall into the water and be snatched back from the jaws of death. Jim Jeffries was almost carried over a dam not long ago and but for his huge strength, the whole boat load would have gone to the bottom. On Saturday Jimmy Britt plunged unintentionally into the Delaware river and had to be fished out by friends before he regained dry land. This gentle form of sport, as anyone may understand, presupposes that the participant is in a perfectly sober, reasonable state.

Yesterday Tom Longboat and a party of four or five friends were seeking the balmy spring air with the aid of a gasoline launch on the Delaware river. How Tom happened to do it no one seems to know, but at any rate he fell off the deck and floundered in the cool waters. He may be able to swim under ordinary conditions, but it must be confessed that he did not make a notable showing yesterday. Whatever was the matter with his companions in the boat they did not appear to have been of much use in rescuing him. Finally a canoe along alongside pulled the former idol of the sports-loving public, dripping and bedraggled, from the water.

GWEN ASKS WHY?

Dear Sir:
I read the sporting page each day. I think the baseball stories grand. At times, it is strange to say, I find a word I understand.

DEACON WHITE GETS THREE NEW RECRUITS

They are Heinrichs Quigley and Deretcho From Seattle— Game Tonight at 6.15.

The Western Canada League is beginning to assume the class of the North Western.

Manager Deacon White is determined to give the people of Edmonton a winner, at any cost, and has three new men on the way from the coast. They are pitcher-outfielder Deretcho and outfielder Heinrichs, both of whom were with Dugdale's Seattle team.

Quigley, the second baseman, who has been kicking with the Eskimos for the last week, has finally accepted terms and is on his way here. Quigley was formerly with Vancouver and is a good fielder and stickler.

With the three new comers the competition for places on the team is bound to be intense. As the teams have all to be down to 12 men on June 1st, some heads are due for the basket, in very short order.

Medicine Hat, who now leads the league by virtue of the Maroons' defeat last evening, will play the last game of the series tonight at 6.15. That is, if J. Plavin is willing and providing Old Sol, his side kick, sheds a few of his beaming rays on the diamond during the day.

Special announcement—Dellar will pitch. Clafflin for the visitors.

OLYMPIC GAMES TO BE SHORT

Many Sports Will Be Omitted From the Meeting to Be Held in Stadium at Stockholm in 1912

New York, May 27.—A meeting of the international Olympic committee has been called for the second week in June at Luxembourg for the purpose of passing on the programme of the games at Sweden in 1912. This programme has already been arranged and will be presented by Col. Black and Conte de Rosen, the Swedish representatives on the international jury, and to judge from the cursory allusions about its makeup it will not nearly be so long as the program of the English Olympic two years ago.

Such sports as football, archery, boxing, golf, hockey, lacrosse, racquets, tennis, motorboat racing and polo are to be excluded, but there are to be a few events belonging to the track and field department which were not included in the English list.

The work of constructing the stadium, near Stockholm, has progressed considerably. The stadium is situated in the Djurgården, near the city of Stockholm. The Swedish government is behind the venture and the crown prince will be the president of the meet. The government has donated 20,000 francs towards the expenses of erecting the stadium and other incidentals and the Swedish sporting associations have contributed 10,000 francs.

And the winner of this classic event is now at the business end of a milk wagon!

GEORGE ADE'S FOOTBALL RULES

Great American Humorist Helps out the Committee on Rules—Bright Suggestions

The proposed revision "downward" of the present football rules has provoked George Ade to the following solution of the problem.

"Selection of the players—The eleven players constituting the team shall be selected by the faculty, and the student who has received the highest grade in Greek antiquity shall be captain of the team. No student shall be eligible for the team unless he is up in class work, and has an established reputation for piety.

"Preliminaries—When a team appears on the field for a contest it shall greet the opposing team with the Chauvante salute, which consists of waving his handkerchief. After this a few friendly chats concerning books and writers may precede the opening of the game.

"Substitutes for the toss—Instead of tossing a coin to determine which side gets the ball, the two captains shall be called upon to extract the cube root of a number provided by the professor of mathematics. The captain who is the first to hand in the correct solution gets the ball.

Advancing the ball—The ball having been placed in the centre of the field, the umpire, who must be a professor of geology, exhibits to the team having possession of the ball a fossil which they can name the geological period to which the fossil belongs hold their right hand.

"Rotation of Umpires—After each touchdown there shall be a change of umpires so that the questions asked of a team may in the course of a long and exciting game, cover the class work in zoology, applied metaphysics, veterinary science, Sanskrit and other useful studies.

CHESTY COX LODGED KICK

Mr. Brown the New Umpire Noted for Lack of Voice—Off on Strikes

The Alberta says:
"Chesty Cox seems to have a pretty fair combination, and he keeps them to it all the time. Brown, the umpire, the man with the voiceless voice, seems a little bit off on his ball and strike decision but, he goes there with the base decisions all right. Old Chesty went after him in the mouth and put up a bluff that was going to protest the game, but what for he refused to divulge. There were two men out and one man in base and Cox was at bat. He biffed the ball a couple of times and then he disappeared into the Lehighbridge box. The umpire called for him to come out, but the wily Chesty stayed the limit till he was ready, and then came running up to the scorers' box and yelled that he was going to protest the game. He muttered something else that was unintelligible, and turning round, ran to the box, and completed his turn by hitting for the third time at the atmosphere. It looked as though it was just a bluff to see what Brown would do."

NAP LAJOIE IS HITTING

His Present Batting Average is .453 and Going up

New York, May 27.—Napoleon Lajoie, is of the opinion that it is much easier to hit for a manager than to manage for a hitter, and his wonderful batting record so far this season is beginning to prove it. Big Larry is now a candidate for the hitting honors of the American league, and it appears to him settled into a race between he and Cobb.

Up to yesterday's game Lajoie had a batting average for this season of .453, and if two of his long smashes had not hit in Hemphill's hands it would have been still better.

The responsibilities of the management weighed heavily on Lajoie and during the season of 1907 and 1908 he hit below .300 for the first time finishing his career. Now that "Jim" McGuire is the manager and Larry is just a plain hitter he proposes to set the league on fire.

To get an idea of the wonderful hitting ability of this man, who was formerly a cab driver in Woonsocket, R. I., Massachusetts, for the last nine years in the American league is given. It must be borne in mind that he had another long record of wonderful hitting in the National League before. His record follows: 1901: .422; 1902: .391; 1903: .355; 1904: .281; 1905: .308; 1906: .351; 1907: .299; 1908: .289; 1909: .324. That gives him a grand average for those nine years of .348.

CANADA AN INSPIRATION
London Telegraph's Tribute to Enterprise Shown in This Country
London, May 28.—With reference to Canadian commercial negotiations the Mail says: "The Dominion's ideal still is a commercial union in the Empire but as years pass without a response from the British electorate, hopes diminish and the ideal recedes. It would be unwise for the British to delude themselves regarding the permanency of the present Canadian sentiment."
"The Standard says: "The fact is that Canada, having waited over thirteen years upon the convenience of this country, can afford to wait no longer."
The Telegram says: "That in human economic force, Canada is already more important than any country in Europe outside the first class powers. There is something inspiring to all countries in the manner in which Canada faces her tasks."

Albany, N.Y., May 28.—The entire trolley system of the United Traction Company in Albany was tied up yesterday by a strike.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN ARE NEGOTIATING
Representatives of Both Countries Are Seeking to Establish Convention in the Far East
St. Petersburg, May 27.—Negotiations between Russia and Japan with reference to an agreement on the question of the far east, in spite of denials on both sides, have assumed definite form.
While it is impossible to obtain information on the details of the plan, there is reason to believe that Japan is seeking to negotiate a convention on broader lines than Russia wishes. Tangible developments may be expected within a month, if this difference can be arranged.

RACE AGAINST TIME
Rich American Chartered Two Special Trains and a Steamer
London, May 27.—W. J. Chalmers, of the firm of Harrison & Chalmers, engineers, received a cable message at Carlbad on Friday last, saying that his daughter was ill in New York. With his wife, he started immediately to catch the liner Mauretania. He found this could be done only by hiring a special train in England, chartering a special turbine steamer to carry him and his wife from Fishguard to Rosslare, Ireland, and then engaging another special train to convey him to Queenstown, where he caught the Mauretania with three hours to spare.
VERDICT AGAINST CLERGYMAN
London, May 28.—At the Withshire assizes, Charles Himmitt, a blind musician, obtained £150 damages against Canon Plumtree of Toronto, for slander. A stay of execution was granted.

COTTON MILLS CLOSE DOWN
Providence R.I., May 28.—Within the next few weeks it is believed that the cotton mills of Rhode Island will be forced to curtail their production by closing their factories two days a week.
